Teacher reminders:

1. All classes need to be administering some type of mid- term exam or assessment. They should not be completed in a class prior to exams.
2. If a student skips an exam, a teacher is not required to provide them with a make-up exam. Administration will notify the teacher regarding the student's eligibility for the make-up of a missed exam.
3. All mid-terms will be 20% of the semester average.
4. Exemptions can be made for seniors with an A average and the class is ending in January.
5. Students not testing will need to be in the cafeteria or library.
6. If a teacher is keeping a student past noon, then parents must be notified by the teacher prior to the day. And the office should be notified as well.
7. Lunch sandwiches will be made available between exams 9:45- 10:00am daily.
